

J. Noel Macy,*Wife Serve
Chilean Dish

A visitor from Britain and another from Connecticut sampled authentic Chilean empanadas—the like of which are hard to find even in this international town—at a Capital cocktail fete Thursday in Georgetown.

The J. Noel Macys' cook prepared her specialty in honor of the Macys' houseguests and party honorees—Mrs. Sturtevant Erdmann from New Canaan in the Nutmeg State, Mrs. Macy's sister-in-law, and Mrs. Guy Du Boulay.

Former Jane Botsford

The latter is the former Jane Balke Botsford who was married to British Wing Comdr. Du Boulay in Washington during World War II. Unfortunately the airman did not accompany his wife on this Washington visit.

Other guests of the Macys at their N street residence from 6 to 8 p.m. were British Ambassador and Lady Makins, Peruvian Ambassador and Senora de Berckemeyer and Sir William Lawrie and Lady Welsh.

Also Gen. Carl Andrew Spaatz, U.S.A.F. (ret.) and Mrs. Spaatz, Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. Abbot Low Moffat, Mr. and Mrs. James Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCauley and Col. and Mrs. Percy Black.

Other Persons There

More were Col. and Mrs. Carlyle Allan, Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Constantine de Stackelberg, Mrs. Davies Fitch, Mrs. William T. Mann, Mrs. Celeste Crosby Miller and Mrs. Randolph Winslow.

Also Cornelius Roosevelt, Jack Logan, William Walton, Taylor Simmons, William Cowgill, Fontaine Broun, A. Coster Schmerhorn, Col. Janusz Ilinski and other mutual friends of the honorees.
